FOREWORD

The annual graduate follow-up survey collects information from graduates of regular and non-regular training programs approximately one year following graduation. The information gathered provides valuable feedback on the success of graduates in the labour market and is an important tool for decision-makers. This tool, along with other sources, is incorporated into the Department's planning process.

This report presents the findings of the Survey of 1998 New Brunswick Community College Graduates. The survey was conducted during a two-week period, June 13-26, 1999 with 1,881 graduates. This represents a response rate of 80%. Survey results indicated that graduates of the Class of 1998 were very successful in locating employment. For the second consecutive year the employment rate reached 88%, which was the highest rate ever achieved by NBCC.

In response to feedback received from the community colleges, the survey is continually modified to reflect information needs. New sections can be found on motivations for enrolling at NBCC/CCNB, satisfaction with salary received, peer tutoring and greater analysis of gender differences in wages.

The Department would like to thank the New Brunswick Community College graduates who participated in this survey; their input has been invaluable.

Graduate follow-up survey results can be found on our website at the following location: http://www.gov.nb.ca/education/docs/colleges/99/grad98.pdf.

As always, your comments and suggestions are welcome. Please forward all communication on this year's survey to:

Executive Summary

The follow-up survey of the Class of 1998 from the New Brunswick Community College generated information from 1,881 graduates. Contact information was available for 2,352 of the 2,433 graduates. Eighty percent (80%) of the graduates for whom contact information was available participated in the survey.

The points which follow present key information obtained through the 1999 survey.

- The employment rate for graduates one year following their graduation was 88%, as it was for 1997 graduates in 1998, remaining at the highest level reported for all survey periods.
- Employed graduates contacted in the 1999 survey reported a slightly higher level of related employment since graduation (87%) than their counterparts reported in 1998 (84%).
- The employment rate for female graduates increased from 89% in 1998 to 91% in 1999.
- The employment rate for male graduates was 84%, a decrease of two percentage points from the 86% reported in 1998.
- The level of directly related employment in the reference week, 63%, increased by one percentage point in 1999 compared to the 62% reported for 1998. The percentage of graduates employed in positions not related to their training decreased by three percentage points to 19%.

Consistent patterns represented in the 1999 survey follow.

- The unemployment rate of 12% in the year following graduation remained constant for graduates when surveyed in 1998 and 1999.
- The percentage working full-time remained constant over the 1998 - 1999 period for both male (96%) and female (86%) graduates.
- The percentage of employed graduates working in New Brunswick (93%) has remained relatively consistent since 1994.
- The majority of employed graduates (88%) continued to be in work situations in which they were working for one employer in the reference week; however, the percentage of graduates in self-employment was 2% in 1999, two percentage points lower than reported in 1998.
- The economic differences between the wages of men and women continued to be evident in 1999 with women in full-time positions earning approximately 77% of the full-time wages of their male counterparts; women working full-time in positions related to their training also earned about 78% of the average wages of male graduates in similar positions. A similar pattern was reported in 1998.

I INTRODUCTION

The Department of Education has been conducting follow-up surveys with graduates of the New Brunswick Community College since 1983. For the past ten years the survey has been conducted by telephone. The survey is conducted annually with graduates of regular and non-regular programs of the College. In this year's survey, interviews were completed with 1,881 graduates from a total listing of 2,352 graduates of the 1998 school year for whom contact information was available.

The data supplied by these surveys provides valuable feedback on the success of New Brunswick Community College graduates in the labour market which, in turn, serves as an important indicator of how well the training provided by the NBCC system corresponds to the demands of the labour market.

This report provides detailed information gathered from the Survey of 1998 New Brunswick Community College Graduates through five sections which are summarized in the material which follows.

- Section II presents information related to the way in which the 1999 survey was conducted and provides a profile of the graduates contacted with a comparison with the overall population of graduates.
- Section III presents the information highlights from the 1999 survey.
- Section IV presents fact sheets which report the survey information on a program-by program basis.
- Section V presents labour market information on a program-by-program basis.
- Section VI presents the evaluations provided by graduates.

A list of terminology used in this report is provided in Appendix A.

II Methodology

II METHODOLOGY

In 1998, 2,433 people graduated from the NBCC. This survey involved the 2,352 graduates for whom contact information was available. The 1,881 graduates interviewed represented 80% of the graduates for whom contact information was available. The background data and required contact information for graduates was retrieved from the Department's Student Information System (SIS).

The study was guided by researchers from the Policy and Planning Branch of the Department of Education and any comments or questions about the information contained in this document should be forwarded to them.

As in previous surveys, graduates were asked about their activities during a specific week of the year (the reference week). Reference week information is an indicator of graduates' current activities. In addition to the reference week information and the information collected on activities since completing training, graduates are also asked to evaluate their NBCC training program and various facilities and services available at the college. The reference week for the 1999 survey was June 6 - June 12, 1999.

The overall approach to the Graduate Follow-Up Survey was changed in 1996. Previously, the survey was conducted in March capturing information from graduates of the previous academic year. Following the pattern established in 1996, the reference week for the 1999 survey was the first week of June. The change in the time of the reference week should be kept in mind when comparing the results from the surveys in 1996-99 to those conducted in previous years. For example, the question asking respondents if they were studying during the reference week gave very different results in 1996-99 compared to previous years. These differences are understandable considering that most people enrolled in post-secondary institutions would be attending classes in March but not in June.

The telephone interviews with graduates were conducted by Baseline Market Research in Fredericton NB towards the end of, and following the reference week (June 10 - June 30,1999).

The 1999 survey response rate of 80% was similar to the 81% for the 1998 survey. Over the last two years it has been more difficult to achieve the 80% response rate because there has been an increase in the number of graduates for whom up-to-date contact information has not been available. For example, in 1998 and in 1999, 10% of the graduate population could not be contacted because up-to-date contact information was not available. The table which follows presents a summary of response rates for the surveys over the 1994-1999 period. Prior to 1997, the data is for graduates of regular programs only.

Response Rates

| | Graduates | Respondents | Response Rate |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1999 Regular/Non-Regular | 2,352 | 1,881 | 80% |
| 1999 Regular | 2,155 | 1,738 | 81% |
| 1998 Regular/Non-Regular | 2,493 | 1,982 | 80% |
| 1998 Regular | 2,195 | 1,767 | 81% |
| 1997 Regular/Non-Regular | 2,558 | 2,068 | 81% |
| 1997 Regular | 2,110 | 1,729 | 82% |
| 1996 Regular | 2,321 | 1,995 | 86% |
| 1995 Regular | 2,030 | 1,756 | 87% |
| 1994 Regular | 2,153 | 1,818 | 84% |

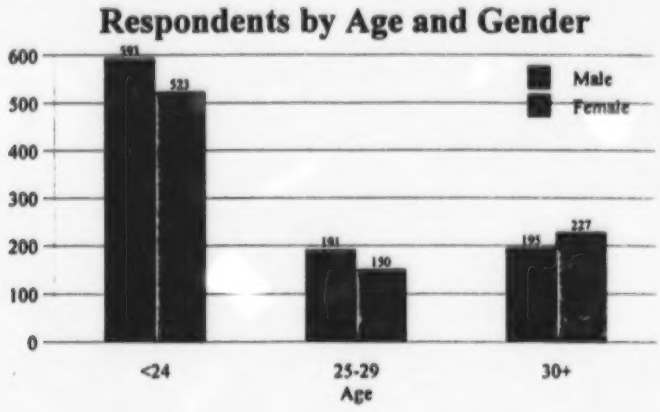
Measuring labour market participation is a primary objective of the graduate follow-up surveys. Because of the importance of this information, an attempt was made to determine the extent to which a change in the time of the reference week (initiated in 1996) affected the results of reported labour force activity. The potential effects were initially monitored in the 1996 survey and the monitoring has continued through the current survey. The information from the current survey is presented in the table which follows. The data presented suggest a two percentage point difference in employment rates between the March and June reference periods. In the 1998 survey, the difference was four percentage points.

| Labour Market Indicators | 1999 Survey of NBCC Graduates | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| | June 1999 | Percentage | March 1999 | Percentage |
| Labour Force | 1,795 | -- | 1,689 | -- |
| Labour Force Participation Rate | 95% | -- | 94% | -- |
| Employed | 1,570 | 88% | 1,455 | 86% |
| Unemployed | 225 | 12% | 234 | 14% |

The chart which follows presents an overview of the gender distribution for graduates contacted.



The table which follows presents a comparative summary of graduates contacted in follow-up surveys over the past 5 years. The information presented indicates that there has been significant increases in the percentage of graduates 25 years of age or older and a significant increase in the percentage of female graduates over the 5-year period.

*Statistics Canada Labour Force Survey June 1999, seasonally adjusted. It is noted that the unadjusted unemployment rate for youth, 15-24 was 12.6% in June 1999.

III SURVEY HIGHLIGHTS

The 88% employment rate for the 1998 graduates is the same as reported for the 1997 graduates in 1998. In both years the rates were higher than those reported in all other survey periods. The rate of unemployment calculated for the 1999 Survey indicates that the graduates had a significantly higher unemployment rate than that calculated for the overall province; however, the unemployment rate for graduates was comparable to the youth unemployment rate of 12.6% (unadjusted) for June 1999.

The table which follows summarizes employment rates over 1995 - 1999 by gender. The information indicates that female graduates continue to evidence a higher, overall employment rate than male graduates.

Employment Rate

III SURVEY HIGHLIGHTS

In 1999, graduates were asked for their perceptions about the wages they earned in the reference week. Overall,

- 7% of employed graduates reported that their wages were "much better" than those of others in similar jobs;
- 20% reported that their wages were better;
- 54% reported that their wages were the same as those for others in similar positions; and
- 19% reported that their wages were worse than those in similar positions.

The table which follows links the perceptions about wages with the average gross wages earned in the reference week.

Satisfaction With Wages

| Perception Of Wages | Average FT Wage | Average PT Wage |
|---|---|---|
| Much Better | $672 | $293 |
| Better | $519 | $236 |
| Same | $455 | $206 |
| Worse | $402 | $176 |

The data suggest a clear link between the wages earned in the reference week and perceptions about those wages.

Industrial Classification of Employment

Starting with the 1999 Survey, industries in which graduates were employed in the Reference Week were coded according to the North American Industrial Classification System (NAICS). Should researchers want to compare employment in industrial sectors for 1999 with other graduate survey data, a conversion program would be required. Conversion programs are available through Statistics Canada.

Gender Differences in Wages

Each graduate survey has identified gaps between the overall wages of male and female graduates. Since it has been demonstrated that males and females tend to be employed in different occupations, gaps may have been expected; however, as the table which follows demonstrates, a similar wage gap often, but not always exists, when male and female graduates are employed in the same NOC (National Occupational Classifications) classifications.

The 133 respondents attending school in the reference week provided the following reasons for their return to an education or training program:

- to upgrade existing skills (54%)
- to get a better job (16%)
- to learn a new trade (13%)
- to get a university degree (12%); or
- inability to find employment (6%).

Employment Since Graduation

Overall, the average number of jobs held since completing training was 1.9. In 1997 and 1998 the overall average was 1.8 jobs since graduation.

Motivations for Community College Enrollment

Beginning with the 1999 survey, all graduates were asked why they had decided to pursue their training at the NBCC rather than through a university or private training program. Overall,

- 28% chose the NBCC because it was the only place which offered the type of training desired;
- 25% indicated that the NBCC offered a less expensive alternative than either a university or a private program;
- 15% chose the NBCC because of the shorter time requirements for completion of a program of study;
- 9% based their selection on the reputation of the College;
- 9% based their decision on the location of a particular College;
- 7% based their selection on the job prospects which would exist upon completion of an NBCC program;
- 5% indicated that they had lacked the marks or other requirements for entry to a university program; and
- 2% indicated that the course was sponsored by an employer.

When asked why they had selected a particular College for their program of study, the following reasons were cited:

- the convenience of the location (49%);
- the particular program was available only at the location selected (28%);
- the reputation associated with the College (11%);
- the language of instruction at the College (6%); and
- various other reasons (6%).

Ninety-four percent of graduates were accepted to the NBCC in the year in which they made their initial application.

Overall, 79% of graduates would select the same field of study, were they making the decision about enrollment today.

Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition and Credit Transfer Services

Graduates were asked questions to determine their awareness, use and evaluation of the PLAR and Credit Transfer Services. The material which follows provides a summary of the information collected.

Overall:

- 47% of graduates reported that they were aware of these services; and
- 53% were not aware of these services.

In 1998, 40% of graduates reported awareness of PLAR.

Among the 53% who could not recall these services (n=996):

- 28% believed that these services may have been of use; and
- 72% did not see a use for these services;

Among those who were aware of these services (n=885):

- 72% heard about PLAR through staff at the NBCC;
- 18% heard about these services through friends; and
- 10% heard about these services through other means.

Among those who were familiar with the services (n=885):

- 24% had applied for Credit Transfer; and
- 12% had applied for a Prior Learning Assessment.

Among the 249 who had applied for one of these services, or 13% of the graduates contacted, 181 (n=249) received an exemption from courses based on prior experience or prior academic work at another institution. The exemptions granted resulted in a reduction of tuition for 13 graduates and a reduced course load for 167 (one person did not see an effect from the exemption).

The 181 graduates who received exemptions provided the following evaluations of the services they received:

- 30% were very satisfied with the services provided;
- 67% were satisfied;
- 2% were dissatisfied and
- 1% were very dissatisfied.

Peer Tutoring

Five percent (5%) of the graduates contacted used the peer tutoring system at the college When asked for their evaluation of the effectiveness of the assistance provided through peer tutoring:

- 52% of those who used this service (n=94) provided a good rating;
- 33% provided a rating of excellent; and
- 15% indicated that peer tutoring was fair (12%) or poor (3%).

Post Program Artistic Involvement of NBCCD Graduates

For the 1999 Survey, graduates of the College of Craft and Design (n=17) were asked about their post-training involvement with the arts community in New Brunswick. The material which follows provides a summary of the information collected.

- Since graduation, 18% of the graduates contacted have applied to the NB Arts Board or the Canada Council for funding to promote or prepare their craft. One of the three who applied received an award.

- Since graduation, 53% of those contacted reported that they have contributed to the arts through exhibits, donations or in other ways.

III SURVEY HIGHLIGHTS

- During the reference week, 35% of those who had completed a program through the College of Craft and Design were practising their craft or preparing for an exhibit for which they were not paid.

The sections which follow present information about graduates on a program-by-program basis.

IV SURVEY RESULTS BY COLLEGE AND PROGRAM

IV SURVEY RESULTS BY COLLEGE AND BY PROGRAM

Thirty-nine percent (39%) of the programs for 1998 graduates had 9 graduates or less per class. In 1999, approximately 29% of the programs had seven or less graduates.

The following section contains a fact sheet for the Class of 1998, a fact sheet for each college and fact sheets for all programs for which more than 3 graduates were interviewed. Information is presented first in summary form if the program is offered in more than one location, followed by information on the program for each college.

The programs which follow, for which graduates were contacted, have been excluded from the presentation because of the small number of graduates reached (3 or less). Although excluded from this section, labour market information for these programs may be found in Section V.

VI GRADUATE ASSESSMENTS

In the tables which follow, the percentages for each assessment (excellent, good, fair and poor) are based on responses from those who actually used the services. The final column in these tables (not assessed/not used) is presented for informational purposes. Overall, the use of services through the registrar's office, the library and issues related to student life activities were least likely to be evaluated by graduates.

Terminology

NBCC

The New Brunswick Community College is a network of ten colleges situated throughout the province of New Brunswick.

Average Weekly Earnings

Refers to the average of the gross earnings that graduates reported for the reference week. The average weekly earnings are reported for each program and for each college where the program is offered. The figures presented are based on earnings reported by graduates who indicated that their employment was either directly or indirectly related to their training.

Employed

The number of respondents who had a job during the reference week.

Employment

Defined in terms of full-time/part-time and permanent/temporary as follows:

|---|---|
| Full-time | Employment of 30 hours or more per week. |
| Part-time | Employment of less than 30 hours per week. |
| Permanent | Employment which has no prearranged termination date. |
| Temporary | Employment which ends at a prearranged date. |

Employment Rate

The number of employed graduates as a percentage of those in the labour force.

Employment Related to Training

Employed graduates were asked about the extent to which their employment during the reference week was related to their training program. Options presented to the respondent included directly related, indirectly related and not at all related.

Related Employment

Includes employment that graduates reported as either directly related or indirectly related to their training program. Directly related means that graduates were in jobs for which their training programs had been designed. Indirectly related means that graduates were in jobs that required at least some of the skills that were acquired during their training program.

Not at all related

Means that graduates were in jobs that did not require any of the skills that were acquired during their training program.

Graduate Population

Graduates of regular and non-regular training programs that were twenty weeks or more in duration and terminated between January 1, and December 31, 1998.

Labour Force

In the context of this survey, Labour Force is composed of respondents who were either employed or unemployed but looking for work during the reference week.

Not in the Labour Force

Respondents who were not working and not looking for work, during the reference week.

Labour Force Participation Rate

The percentage of respondents who were actively participating in the labour force during the reference week (based on the total number of respondents).

Labour Force Survey

A monthly survey by Statistics Canada which collects labour force information from a representative sample of the working age population.

NAICS (North American Industrial Classification System)

NAICS was used to categorize the industrial sectors/industries in which graduates were employed in the reference week. Fact sheets list the top three industries for employment. If the percentage of respondents is equal across occupations, the three most closely related to the training completed are listed.

NOC (National Occupational Classification)

The National Occupational Classification was used to categorize the kind of work done by graduates. The top three responses are given. If the percentage of respondents in each occupation is equal the three that appear most relevant to the program content are listed.

Programs

Regular

Programs that operated throughout the year on a year-to-year basis. Regular training programs are funded through the departmental budgetary process. Regular training programs are listed in the annual New Brunswick Community College Calendar. (R=Regular)

Non-Regular

Programs that are offered through the New Brunswick Community College that are not part of the regular program listing in the NBCC Calendar. These programs may or may not have the same content as regular training programs of the same name. (NR=Non-Regular)

Co-Op

Cooperative Education Programs integrate periods of classroom study with periods of training in related work. Each work situation is developed and approved by the College as a suitable learning situation. Co-Op trainees are placed in productive work, receive wages and have their progress monitored by the employers and representatives of the College. (Co-Op)

Reference Week

The week of June 6-12, 1999 served as the reference week for this survey. During the survey all graduates were asked about their activities during this week.
